

This guide covers only the key steps of the registration process for the event. Please be aware that there are additional steps in the registration form that are not included in this guide. For complete registration, kindly follow the instructions on the registration form.

1. Go the registration site: 2024 NAACL Conference Registration June 16
2. In Step 1 “Begin Registration” make sure you choose the following options. If you only have a paper accepted at an affinity group workshop (like LXNLP) you are not considered as an author/paper presenter. Affinity group workshop’s papers are not considered part of the main conference. Therefore, you should select “No” in both options. Author/paper presenter are those who are presenting a paper in the main conference / main workshops. Select your attendance mode (in-person or virtual) and type (regular or student) accordingly.

The paper title will be included in your invitation letter.
